AN INSTRUCTIONAL A Touring Visual Arts Exhibition

Mart has collated work from contemporary Artists working under the principles of 'Readymade' practices. This innovative new show showcases an eclectic mix of Video, Performance and Installation work. Curated by Ciara Scanlan & Matthew Nevin, the exhibition holds a dynamic collection of Visual Art from contemporary Irish, British, European & North American Artists. MART has developed an extensive network of connections with contemporary visual art spaces globally and is bringing this creative traveling show to Norway, UK, Germany, Slovak Republic and Rep Ireland.

MART's primary aim is to provide opportunities for New Media Artists and to showcase their work within Ireland, UK and internationally. Through this touring exhibition we hope to attract interest from new artists wishing to join and curators interested in showing our work.

16-19 June

'Entrée'

Bergen, Norway

entree-visningsrom.blogspot.com

ENTRÉE is an artist-run and non-commercial gallery established in 2009 by Cato Løland and Randi Grov Berger. By promoting both local and international young artists, we intend to be an active participant in the development of Bergen's scene of emerging artists.

24-26 June

'Shunt'

London, UK

www.shunt.co.uk

SHUNT has re-opened the Lounge – now with more tables, chairs, and sofas than before! The 'new' Lounge offers an exciting programme of upcoming work that includes film, live music, circus, visual arts, performance, theatre, installation, and perhaps the odd pole-vaulter. Working with a mix of emerging and more experienced artists, the Lounge offers an opportunity to experiment with new work before a diverse audience.

13-17 July

'Space'

Bratislava, Slovakia

www.crazycurators.org

SPACE projects | residency lab | store (the former Gallery Priestor for Contemporary Arts) is a curated project space focusing on the permanent scanning and presentation of the most innovative and experimental forms of contemporary art. Our mission is to create an interactive space for the communication between the audience and contemporary art and to initiate international cooperation and exchanges as well as to help to develop the local art scene.

21-28 July

'Stattpad Wedding'

Berlin, Germany

www.stattpad.net

STATTBAD Wedding opened its doors as a contemporary culture centre on May 1st 2009 with the exhibition No More Sugar for the Monkey, featuring prominent and emerging Berlin based artists. In keeping with the date May 1st, STATTBAD Wedding managed to grab front page headlines from the established participants of Berlin Gallery Weekend. Since then, STATTBAD Wedding has played host to numerous art exhibitions, festivals, concerts, performances, screenings, lectures and special events, with well over 20,000 guests in the first year alone.

4-7 August

'Molesworth Gallery'

Dublin, Ireland

www.molesworthgallery.com

The Molesworth Gallery is one of Ireland's leading contemporary art galleries, representing some of the most accomplished and exciting artists working in the country today. We host eight solo and two curated group exhibitions annually at our exhibition space in Dublin's city centre. Exhibitions are documented in gallery publications ranging from brochures to hardback books. We also collaborate with arts centres and museums to maximise public access to the work of our artists as well as promoting them at international art fairs.
